

Nina M. Peters

January 7, 1955 - February 28, 2015

NINA MARIE PETERS was born on January 7, 1955 to the late Rose Mary Jackson and the late Howard Eugene Fagans in Elizabeth City, North Carolina. She departed this life on February 28, 2015 at Franklin Square Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. She was sixty years of age.

Nina received her education at Eastern High School in Baltimore, Maryland. She accepted the Lord Jesus Christ and was baptized at Faith Tabernacle Church in Baltimore, Maryland. She served faithfully in several ministries and taught the Word of God to young children for many years. Nina loved the Lord and always shared the Word of God and everyone who knew her understood her heart and her passion for him. She always emphasized the importance of prayer and scriptures to her children, family and anyone who knew her.

She instilled and embodied a woman of humility, servitude and passion. Her passion was serving others, teaching the Word of God to children, and helping those in need. Everyone knew her as Sis. Nina, Mommy, Marie, or Mrs. Nina. She represented the true Proverbs 31 woman and she modeled that role daily. Her daily words of prayer, scripture and encouragement will be truly missed but the lessons that she taught will continue to live on.

Nina worked all her life. She had several jobs during her life. She worked as a daycare provider for over 30 years and worked as a security officer for over 15 years. She was married to Robin Vincent Waters on May 2, 1980 and had two children. She remarried to Kirk B. Peters on June 20, 2005.

The memory of Nina lives in the hearts of: her loving husband, Kirk Peters; two daughters, Patricia Waters and Robin Waters-Ellis; two sons-in-law, Tavon Ellis and Lewis Colloer II; three grandchildren, Madison Ellis, Kennedy Ellis and Tavon Triston Ellis; sisters, Cassandra Wilson, Pauline Jackson (deceased), Linda Fagans, Teresa Evans, and Janet Fagans; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
