

Nobie S. Tuck

May 12, 1921 - March 17, 2018

NOBIE S. TUCK, daughter of the late Solomon Tuck and Lizzie Faulkner Tuck, was born on May 12, 1921 in Virgilina, Virginia. She departed this life suddenly on March 17, 2018.

She received her education at the Lee Jeffries School and Pearson County School. At an early age she left North Carolina to reside in Baltimore, Maryland. She was employed at Archer's Laundry, and Sears from which she retired after 22 years.

Nobie made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone that knew her. She was always a true friend and a devoted family person.

She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Navater Brown (Curley) of Baltimore, Md. and her son, Ollie D. Hughes of Semora, North Carolina (daughter, Lizzie C. Jones-Epps of Baltimore, Md., preceded her in death); six grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, her great-great-granddaughter, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ To the family: I want you all to know that if I was able to, I would be there with you all. I loved Aunt Nobie and will miss her. I know what she meant to you all and I know what you all are going through. If you all need anything at all, I'm only a phone call away.

*Love,
Cousin Michelle Tuck Thomas*

“ Aunt Nobie, I just can't believe you are gone, but I will always hold the memories of you in my heart, knowing you are with mama and the rest of your family makes me feel good. Your work down here is done, God got a special flower in his garden for Easter. I will always cherish your sweet memory. Love you Aunt Nobie.

“ No one can prepare you for a loss; it comes like a swift wind. But take comfort in knowing that your mother is now resting in the arms of our Lord. Wishing you peace to bring comfort and the courage to face the days ahead and loving memories to forever hold in your hearts. My thoughts and prayers and love are going out to the family.
