

Nomia Crudup

October 24, 1946 - March 22, 2015

Nomia Crudup departed this life early Sunday morning, March 22, 2015 due to illness. She was born on October 24, 1946 to the late Elick and Rosalie Dargan in Baltimore, Maryland.

Geneva, “Nee Nee” as she was most commonly called, was educated in Baltimore. She graduated from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School and was later employed as a nurse at Mercy Hospital for over forty years until her health problems caused her to retire.

She became a member of St. Paul Baptist Church at an early age. Nomia married David Crudup on August 7, 1971 (he preceded her in death) and although she only had one child, Sean, she was a mother figure to many children in and outside of her family.

Geneva had many loves: taking charge, giving advice (whether you asked her or not), traveling (especially abroad), family gatherings, having fun and helping others. She was the resident physician for her family and friends and loved her craft. She also loved knitting, crocheting, television game shows and westerns.

Geneva loved to view herself as the mother bear with her family and friends, her cubs whom she took delight in defending (first in the fight and last to leave). Because she loved so much, she was loved so much and will be greatly missed.

Rejoicing and standing with their arms open wide as she entered the “Gates of Heaven” are: her mother and father; three sisters, Mary, Rebecca, and Beatrice; and three nieces, Diane, Shirlynn and Christina.

Left in the “Garden of Life” to cherish her memory are: her son, Sean Dargan; daughter-in-law, Jacqueline Dargan; two sisters, Ellen Richbow and Louise Dargan; two brothers, Elick Dargan, Jr. and Gilbert Dargan; two sisters-in-law, Willie Mae Dargan and Ernestine Crudup; seven grandchildren, Terry, Kevin, Latasha, Natasha, Jordan, Sean and Dasean; eight great-grandchildren, three aunts, an uncle, an abundance of nieces, nephews, cousins, neighbors, and friends.
