

Nora L. Graham

August 2, 1952 - May 21, 2012

Nora L. Graham, daughter of the late Roosevelt and Norma Graham, was born in Florence, South Carolina on August 2, 1952. She fell asleep in death on Monday, May 21, 2012.

Nora was educated in the public school in Florence, South Carolina. After school Nora became a mother to her only child, now known as Mrs. Angie Sharpe.

Nora relocated to Bridgeport, Connecticut in search of employment. She became employed as a record keeper for thirty-four years for a company call Ross & Roberts. During those thirty-four years she became a good and dear friend to many people.

In 2011, Nora relocated to Baltimore, Maryland to be closer to her immediate family.

She is survived by: her loving daughter, Angie Sharpe; her three grandchildren, DeJane, Preshus and Shawn; her two beautiful sisters, Diane and Mary; her two handsome brothers, Johnny and Roosevelt Jr.; her wonderful sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law; all of her nieces and nephews; and other relatives and dear friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
