

Norine W. Greene

March 11, 1944 - March 2, 2017

Norine Williams Greene, daughter of Norman and Gladys Williams, was born on March 11, 1944 and transitioned on March 2, 2017 after a lengthy illness.

Norine graduated from Frederick Douglass Senior High School and began her career at Western Electric Telephone Company at age 17. She remained at Western Electric for twenty-five years until they closed their doors for business. At that time she began working for Moore Business Forms where she retired in 2009.

Norine worshipped at Grace Bible Baptist Church for over 20 years. She loved her church family and enjoyed serving in church in any capacity needed. Norine loved life...she loved the outdoors, traveling with family and friends, she enjoyed plays and musicals, and bowling with her husband, Donald Greene, and friends. Norine also enjoyed family gatherings, family dinners, celebrating holidays with family and friends, and shopping.

Norine leaves behind: her beloved husband Donald Greene, three stepsons, Donald Greene Jr., Mark Greene, and Quentin Greene; one brother, Louis Williams; four nephews, Robert Coleman, Ronald Coleman, Michael Coleman, and John Coleman; two nieces, Romona Newman, Renee Coleman. In addition, Norine leaves several great nephews, and nieces. Adrienne Coleman, Carliza Dunlap, Meleaka Jackson, Kayce Coleman, Erin Coleman, Sean Coleman, Michael Coleman Jr., Derrick Coleman, Chris Coleman, Brandon Coleman and many other family members and friends.
