The Legacy of Norma Jean McQuinn

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smile when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times, laughing times, bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun;
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

Norma J. Coxson McQuinn, 61, entered eternal rest on April 14, 2014. She was born May 19, 1952 in Charlottesville, Virginia. She was preceded in death by her parents, Catherine C. Dickerson and James Tinsely; two sisters, Gloria and Migion Dickerson.

During her childhood years, Norma spent most of her time in Charlottesville, Virginia where she was raised by her grandmother Catherine Coxson. She also attended the Madison Public School system, as well as the Petersburg Training Academy.

Norma was employed with the Medical College of Virginia for thirteen years as an Environmental Service Specialists until her retirement in May 1997.

She was a wonderful and caring wife, mother, sister and friend. Norma was crafty indeed! She loved to figure out how things worked so she could place it all back together! Her greenish-gray eyes could light up any dark room. Her smile was infectious to all who knew her. Norma's presence was pure magic. She always felt blessed when giving just a little help to others! Her beloved dog Cola and lovebird Charlie meant the world to her. The irreplaceable bond they share is beyond words.

She is survived by her devoted husband, Joseph McQuinn, Jr. of thirty-five wonderful years; four loving daughters, Sherrie A, Washington(Clifton, Jr.), Linda McClenney(Joey), Christina McQuinn and Terika McQuinn; eight grandchildren; four grandsons, four granddaughters; four sisters, Sadie E. Mack(Sonny), Dorothy Coxson, Olivia Dickerson, and Bernadette Brown; two brothers, Ruthford Parham and Ronnie Dickerson; one devoted aunt, Mable Gorham, a devoted cousin, Lillian Boxley; a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, other relatives, and many devoted friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ "Angel Wings"

The Lord whispered to me I have come to prepare a place for you My sickness pain and worry are now over it is through I find so much comfort in knowing that GOD remains high on his heavenly throne

if you promise to carry me in your spirit while thinking of the good times

my presence will never be gone

I know it will bring a beautiful bright smile upon each and every one of your faces reach out in the distance to feel my love's embrace

I never planned to leave without saying goodbye go ahead babies, mommy says it's ok to cry

My body was too weak

I simply could not continue to fight

it's going to be alright

God has given me permission to rests every trial is just a test

I have now passed over

I am that angel who taps you on the shoulder

God, thanks for waiting for me

you opened the door

i'm sure glad you granted me

my angel wings
