

Norma T. Williams

February 1, 1939 - February 8, 2010

On February 8, 2010, God sent His angels to escort NORMA WILLIAMS into His heavenly arms. She was born Norma T. Handy on February 1, 1939 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Jefferson Handy and Audrey McCall. Norma received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She held numerous jobs with ARA Food Services where she was employed for more than fifteen years. In 1972 she met the late Ottis Williams. They married on June 3, 1978 and spent twenty-two loving years together. Norma made numerous friends wherever she met and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her, especially for her cooking. She was a very loving and devoted mother, wife, daughter, sister and friend. We will all miss her, but we know she's in a better place, joining her late mother, father, husband, son-Paul Bryant and daughter-Marcia Adams. She leaves to cherish her memory: her sister, Aurelia Womack; children, Horace Bryant, Morris Bryant, Norris Bryant and Donna Bryant; numerous nieces, nephews, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and a host of other family and friends.

“ Please accept my condolences. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear the voice of his son Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection. (John 5:28,29) That day, will be a real celebration of life!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##
