

Norman Coleman

August 11, 1913 - March 5, 2010

Norman Coleman, 96 of Ashland, Virginia, departed this life March 5, 2010 to be with his Eternal Father. He was born August 11, 1913 to the late Ernest and Pattie Coleman. He was preceded in death by his son, Neverette Coleman. He was a very devoted son, a caring brother, a loving husband, a committed father and a faithful friend. Norman was a member of Brown Grove Baptist Church and an example of a generation of men who took the scripture literally in II Thessalonians 3:10 that states “. . . if anyone will not work, neither shall he eat.” He was a dedicated employee of RF & P Railroad and Southern Brick Contractors. Some often think a man is spiritual by the words he speaks. Our father was spiritual by the example he gave. He was the best father anyone could have had, for he always gave unconditional love. He leaves to cherish his memory his devoted wife of 71 wonderful years, Alease Coleman; three sons, Rev. Irvin Coleman of Sickerville, New Jersey, Louis Coleman (Doris), and Eugene Coleman (Deborah); three daughters, Susie Woodard (Rev. Dennis), Alease Dickerson (Warren Jr.) and Rev. Kate Mason (Rev. Marvin), all of Richmond, Virginia; a daughter-in-law, Thelma Coleman; one brother-in-law, Irvin Jones; two sisters-in-law, Evelyn Jones and Georgia Burruss; twelve grandchildren, eighteen great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ Death is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to it as 'the last enemy'. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, he will by means of his son Jesus bring our enemy 'to nothing'. (1Corinthians 15:26) That day, will be a real celebration of life!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##
