

Norman E. Taylor

January 10, 1953 - December 15, 2001

Norman E. Taylor, Sr., son of the late Norman Taylor and Delores Cothorn, was born on January 10, 1953 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on December 15, 2001 after a lengthy illness. He received his education in Baltimore City public schools. Afterwards he began a thirteen-year long career with Robert Bartley Corporation. He met and married the late Sheila Williams on January 15, 1977, and out of this union they had two children, Norman, Jr. and Tyesha. He was a loving and devoted husband and father and will be sorely missed by his family. Norman made friends everywhere he went. He will remain within the hearts and be forever missed by all who knew him. He began studying with Jehovah's Witnesses in May of 2001 and began to make his love for Jehovah evident. Although he was ill, he continued to progress in his Bible studies, attending the meetings when his health permitted. He leaves to mourn: his wife Sheila Taylor; son, Norman E. Taylor, Jr.; daughter, Tyesha M. Ralph; grandson, Deonte M. Drumgoole; two sisters, Cheryl Moore and Paula Karim; brother, Danny Taylor; son-in-law, Bernard W. Ralph, 111; mother-in-law, Lena C. Williams; eight sisters-in-law, Rachel Williams, Brenda Cooper, Linda Mitchell, Louise Martin, Glendora Williams, Marie Fowlkes, Joanna Henderson and Ellen Taylor; eight brothers-in-law, Terry Moore, Midge Karim, Robert Randall, Leroy Williams, Thomas Williams, Tyrone Cooper, Stacy Mitchell and Earl Fowlkes; uncle, Donald Brown; aunts, Deborah Brown and Shirley Brown; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
