

Norman Harris

October 20, 1920 - October 1, 2006

Norman Harris, son of the late Joe and Pearlie Lynch, was born October 20, 1920 in North Carolina. He went home on October 1, 2006. Norman received his education in North Carolina public schools. He was employed by Baltimore City for many years. Norman was a faithful member at First Baptist Church, and served on the usher board for many years. He was always up and dressed for church every Sunday, sometimes before the sun came up. He met and married Helen Means who he joins in heaven now; out of the union they had three children—Beverly, Helen, and Joann. Norman was known as Pop to everyone who loved and cared for him. He was a faithful father, grandfather, and friend. He leaves to mourn: his daughters, Beverly, Helen, and Joann of Maryland; stepson, Joseph of South Carolina; two sisters, Dorothy of Washington D.C. and Ethel Lee from Virginia; six grandchildren, ten great grandchildren and a host of relatives and friends.

“ My sincerest condolences are extended to the family and friends of Norman Harris. Death is a sad occasion, especially when the loved one is very close and dear to you. The Bible encourages that we have "hope toward God... that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and unrighteous" (Acts 24:15). May you continue to find hope and comfort from the Scriptures.##imported-begin##Brittany Adams##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
