“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ My condolences on your loss. I am Sean's mother and I live on the street behind you. To lose your mate is heartbreaking. I see many comforting words on this site for you. May you find comfort in knowing others are thinking of you in your time of need. But most important know that soon Jehovah God will do away with death. Revelation 21:4 and Isaiah 25:8. And bring about a resurrection (Acts 24:15) Resurrection is a standing up again, a coming to life. It is what Jesus did for Lazarus (John 11:43-44) and will do for others- John 5:28-29 Draw comfort from family, friends and your fond memories.

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for your heartbreaking loss of your loved one. May the cherished memories you shared with him bring you much comfort and may the support of family and friends help you to cope with your loss. One day God promises: As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing. Jehovah hates death and it is his purpose to end all sickness and death in the near future. As far back as the prophets of old, Jehovah outlined his purpose to make all things new. He inspired the prophet Daniel to record at Daniel 12:2 that there would be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up. Jesus raised many people from the dead when he was here on the earth, and the bible promises that in God's appointed time those who are dead now will hear the voice of the son of God and they will wake up; John 5:28,29. May the hope of seeing Norman again be a great comfort to you in the days ahead.

“ I am so sorry about the lost of your loved one in death. May precious memories and the promise of the resurrection bring you much strength and comfort.

At John 11:25, Jesus said: I am the resurrection and the life. Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.

May this hope bring your family comfort and peace. With deepest sympathy.
