“ To The Family & Friends of Mr. Norman Dotson, I would like to extend my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. We all look forward to the time when mourning will be a thing of the past because 1Cor15:26 talks about a time when "the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing". Continue to draw close to the "God of all comfort" and he will give you the strength to endure. 1Cor1:3-4 Sincerely, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mr. Dotson. First Corinthians 15:26 lovingly tells us that our "enemy death" is going to be destroyed. Acts 24:15 tells us that "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I wish to extend my heartfelt condolences to the family and friends of Norman at this most difficult time. Turn to our loving heavenly father for support, strength and comfort to get you through and help you to endure. He knows your pain, and cares deeply about what you are going through. he also promises us the ways out from death, because the scriptures tell us he is the God of saving acts. Psalm 68:20. One day soon we will no longer have to say goodbye to our loved ones, because God is going to end all sickness and death. Yes Isaiah 25:8 promises that he will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces." John 5:28,29 lovingly tells us that all who are in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out. May that wonderful promise be a source of encouragement to help you to bear up, and may your thoughts of happier days you spent with Norman bring back fond memories to your hearts.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
