“ To the family. Please accept my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At this very difficult time may you find comfort in the beautiful promises recorded in God's word the Bible. At John chapter 5, verses 28 and 29, we read of an event that is very soon to take place. It tells us, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which ALL those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus Christ) voice and come out." What a wondrous time that will be. A time when we will have the opportunity to welcome our loved ones back to life, right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11) May you draw comfort and find hope in your time of mourning from "the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all of our tribulation." (1 Corinthians 1:3, 4)###imported-begin##Sausha S.###imported-end##

“ I send my warm and heartfelt condolences to the family. May you find much comfort in the sure hope of the resurrection. Jesus promises that all who would exercise faith in him would have everlasting life, and one day they would hear his voice and come out of the memorial tombs. JOhn 3:16, John 5:28,29 One day your loved one will open his eyes again in peaceful and secure conditions. May you find much comfort in the hope of the resurrection.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
