

Norman Lee Keeton,

May 11, 1926 - February 25, 2010

Our beloved, Norman Lee Keeton Jr. was born May 11, 1926 to the late Norman Lee Keeton Sr. and Maggie Keeton, in Lanexa, Virginia. He was preceded in death by his wife, Virginia Miller Keeton; sisters, Edna Keeton and Iva Wilson; and two brothers, William “Jack” Keeton and Walter “Kermit” Keeton. On February 25, 2010 Norman left Envoy of Straford Hills Nursing Home to meet his heavenly father and join his loved one who await his arrival. He was a very caring, compassionate person, affectionately known as Junior to his family and friends. He attended George W. Watkins Training School in New Kent County. After completing school, he went to work at Yorktown Naval Supply Station. On December 21, 1944, he entered the United States Navy to serve his country in World War II. After his tour of duty September 7, 1946, he returned home and obtained a job with Chetham Annex, where he worked until his retirement. He enjoyed working and always kept busy. He was a true entrepreneur and showed that by owning and operating his own bus service for many years. His company transported people to work in the Hampton/ Yorktown area and provided transportation to community groups throughout the state. He also worked at a local grocery store and for the highway department. At an early age, he joined Ebenezer Baptist Church where he later served as a choir member and on the trustee board. He was dedicated to his church until his health first began to fail. He leaves to cherish his sweet memories: four children, Norman Lee Keeton III (Gwen), Shelia Shelton (Henry), Victor Wilson, and Gregory Keeton (Myesha); four grandchildren, Terrance Cotman (Angie), Delicia Keeton, Bryan Keeton, and Ariyana Keeton; two great-grandchildren, Jade and Jasmine Cotman. He also leaves behind a lifelong friend, Lorraine Keeton, a devoted nephew, Don Crewe, and a host of other nephews, nieces, and friends.

“ I want to express my condolences. It seems unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises that our loved ones now dead will indeed live again. You can read these words at John 11:20-27. May you find comfort and strength in God's Word the Bible.##imported-begin##S. “ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear the voice of his son Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection. (John 5:28,29) That day, will be a real celebration of life!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##
