

Norman Ransom

April 25, 1935 - December 14, 2010

April 24, 1935 was special day for the family of the late Rev. Shirley Ransom and his late wife, Ringoldia Young Ransom. That was because the new addition was a son whom they named NORMAN.

Growing up with Christian parents in a Christian home. Norman Found Christ early in life.

Norman was education in the Public School System of Baltimore County.

When he left School he started his own family with his schoolmate, Pearl. During this time, Norman was employed at Eastern Stainless Steel Company and the Bethlehem Steel Corporation both located in Baltimore County, Maryland. Not satisfied with this type of work, he enlisted in the United States Army.

After his discharged and the dissolution of his marriage. Norman moved to Salisbury, Maryland. There he met and married the late Joyce Price. He also started a new family and spent the rest of his life there.

Norman retired from the Wicomico County School District after which his health began to deteriorate. His health was on the decline when he was transported to Baltimore for further treatment and rehabilitation.

Even though Norman was improving somewhat, God Stepped in and took him home on Monday morning, December 14, 2010 at Northwest Hospital in Randallstown, Maryland.

He has many to cherish his memory; including his children, Dr. Victoria Mathews (James), Dr. Darnell Ransom (Michele), Shane Ransom, Norman Ransom, Jr.(Lollita), Alison Bibbens(Karl), Abdul Muhammad(Ishia), Melissa and Olivia Ransom; brother, Milton Ransom; sisters, Cassie Jones(James),Ringoldia Burrell(Bernard), Delores Gregory and Glorious Wooten; twenty-three grandchildren, fifteen great-grandchildren; stepmother, Mildred Ransom; stepsister, Shirley Hughes, sisters-in-law, Deloris Ransom, Bertha Ransom and Roxie Duffield; brother-in-law, Charles Boyd and Lloyd Price (Gloria); cousins and friends.

His oldest son, Almaajid Muhammad and two grandsons preceded him in death, as well as one sister and five brothers.

Norman or Skinner as some fondly called him, will be truly missed by all who loved him.
