

Norman Young

October 8, 1939 - December 30, 2005

NORMAN YOUNG, affectionately known as “Scubby”, was the fourth of six children born October 8, 1939, of the late Leroy and Airlean Young. Norman received his second birth, through baptism, on June 18, 2005 at the Berea Temple Seventh Day Adventist Church. Norman “Scubby” received his early education within the Baltimore City Public School System and later he picked up training as a cobbler in the trade of shoe repair. Using his cobbler training, Scubby worked for many years at this father’s business, Young’s Shoe Repair, located on East Baltimore Street and later on south Broadway. Scubby also worked as a building maintenance engineer at the Epstein Department Store. It was during this time that he met Linda Jackson and they later married on October 4, 1967. From this union he was blessed with two children, Wanda Rosetta Young and Wanita Elaine Cornell, and two stepchildren, whom he loved as his own, Warren Lamont Jackson and Subanese “Ray Ray” Barjogar. There were many who considered Scubby to be quite handsome (although somewhat rugged) and he was a sharp dresser, especially when it came to his shoes; however, it was his pleasant smile and charming personality that first attracted his companion of 14 years, Harriet Williams. Harriet faithfully cared for Scubby during his illness until God laid him to rest. Scubby will mostly be remembered as being, outspoken, full of life, and having a talent for making others laugh. He especially took pleasure in bringing joy to children and seniors. It was his strong will and determination that, despite his failing health, allowed Scubby to find strength in God to fight his way back on numerous occasions. On Friday, December 30, 2005, Scubby finally succumbed to his long-term illness at his home. Until the Giver of Life awakens, Scubby leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted companion, Harriett Williams; his daughters, Wanda Rosetta Young and Wanita Elaine Cornell; one son-in-law, Kevin; two step children, Warren Lamont Jackson and Subanese "Ray Ray" Barjogar; two grandchildren, Wanika, Brian Jr.; two sisters and one brother, Shirley Breese, Rosetta Young, Irving Young; sister-in-law, Sharon Young, and host of loving nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Norman Young

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Dear family, I wish to extend my deepest sympathy for the loss of your loved one. Though a stranger to your family, I am no stranger to the pain caused by death and I would like to share a scripture from God's Word, the bible to help comfort you. There is a promise given us at Isaiah 26:19 which reads: "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust!..." How wonderful a promise this is for all of us who has lost a loved one. To be able to have them back with us will eliminate all of the pain and grief we have to deal with and replace it with joy and happiness. Isaiah 25:8 states: "He will actually swallow up death forever..." Never will they have to leave us again. Please be assured that these promises will be fulfilled in the very near future through Almighty God, Jehovah's Kingdom when His Will will take place here on earth as it is in heaven. My prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM