NORRLINE T. JOHNSON-LEE, the oldest of twin daughters of the late Marion Martin and Norris Bernard Johnson, was born on June 29, 1948 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on June 6, 2005. She received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools where she and her twin sister Morrline T. Johnson-Harden graduated from Carrollton High School in 1966. “ Dear Family I wanted to take this time to express my condolences on the loss of your loved one. I wanted to let you know that the Bible offers hope and comfort at times like this. The scriptures tells us that God is a God of Comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4 & Isaiah 66:13). They also tell us that he sees our plight is near to those broken at heart and those crushed in spirit he saves, Psalm 34:18. There is also hope of seeing our dead loved ones again in a different world free from all the stresses of this world. A world where there are no crimes, sickness, death, poverty, etc. These promises can be found at scriptures such as Psalm, 37:10, 11; Revelation 21:3, 4; John 5:28, 29; Isaiah 26:19; Hosea 13:14. There are plenty of other scriptures but time will not permit me to give them all to you. Please take the time to read the scriptures mentioned and draw comfort from them whenever you feel the need.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your deep loss. First Corinthians 15:26 rightly calls death our enemy, that same verse promises that death will be done away with. But what hope is there for our dead loved ones? Acts 24:15 assures us- "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort from this divinely inspired promise that is to take place on a paradise earth.(Luke 23:43 and 2 Peter 3:13)##imported-begin##Sharon Hil##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
