

Novella P. Brown

August 16, 1943 - September 30, 2016

Novella Patricia Brown (Bunny) was born on August 16, 1943. With many physical challenges over the years, with little or no complaints, she departed this life quietly on September 30, 2016.

Novella was the fourth of eight children born to James T. and Mary A. Brooks. Five of her siblings preceded her in death.

Novella received her formal education in the Baltimore City Public School System where she later worked as a cafeteria Cashier and Baker. Cooking and baking at home was one of her passions.

For relaxation she formed the We-Ten Duckpin Bowling League. In addition to that, Pinochle was her game. She could spend hours with her legs under the table.

Novella was a faithful member of the Douglas Memorial Community Church for over thirty years. She was a member of the Usher Board, and a dedicated volunteer of the Meals on Wheels Ministry.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband of fifty-three years, Preston S. Brown; her son, Charles; daughter-in-law, Teresa; five grandchildren, Paris, Cierra, Anaitza, Danixi, and Xeitaruti; brother, Albert Brooks; sister, Carolyn

Moore; sisters-in-law, Lillian Brooks and Mary Brooks; brother-in-law, Willie Moore; a special nephew, Joseph Manns; a devoted adopted sister, Jean Washington; a special friend, Cynthia Parker; and a host of family and friends too numerous to mention.
