

Nyasia Alexis Martin

November 2, 1997 - June 24, 2010

NYASIA A. MARTIN was born on November 2, 1997 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was born to Nicole J. Martin and Joe Arrington. On June 24, 2010, she was suddenly and unexpectedly called home to be with the Lord. Nyasia grew up in Baltimore County and attended Battle of Monument School in Dundalk, Maryland, where she received her education.

Nyasia was known for showing unconditional love to whom ever came in contact with her. She could brighten any room with her smile. She had a tremendous love for two things-food and Barney. If you would ever turn your back on her leave your food near her she would surely grab it and sneak away to watch her favorite episode of Barney.

Nyasia leaves to cherish her Precious memory; her loving mother, Nicole Martin; and father, Rodney Wilkins whom accepted and raised her as his own; her sister, Daneira Jones; favorite aunt, Sabrina Martin; and a cousin whom was like a brother to her, Anthony Martin; her grandfather, John Thomas; her great-grandmother, Missie Martin; four stepsiblings, Dantrell, Isis, Xavier and Isiah; her godmother, Lachelle Lee; godfather, Anthony Martin, Sr.; and six godsiblings, Teetee, Tiara, Shae, Trea, Tavonne and Dashawn; and a host of other family members and friend.

Nyasia was preceded in death by her grandmother Peggy J. Thomas, grandfather, Gordon M. Martin and great-grandfather Moses Martin.
