

Oakley Lee Taylor

August 14, 1924 - January 11, 2012

Our beloved Oakley Lee Taylor, 87, was born on August 14, 1924 in Hanover County, Virginia. She slipped away into eternal rest on Wednesday, January 11, 2012 in her home. She was the daughter of the late Willie and Carrie Coleman. She was preceded in death by her husband, Rev. Linwood Taylor.

She was educated in Hanover County Public Schools. Oakley accepted Christ at an early age and became a member of the Old Chestnut Grove Baptist Church in Studley, Virginia (Hanover County). Oakley loved the Lord and didn't mind talking about the Word of God to anyone. She worked out side of her home for years until she retired. She loved to work with her hands. Even when her health began to fail and the sound of preaching and gospel music was played, she still rejoiced by the moving of her hands giving God praise. One of her famous sayings was "darling, you know the Lord and you not suppose to say things like that."

She leaves to cherish her memory, one daughter, Pastor Rose Booker (Alphonso); ten grandchildren, one devoted, Ronald Sweat; several great-grand and great-great-grandchildren; one sister, Florine Carter (Elwood); one brother, Lewis Coleman; one sister-in-law, Dorothy Bell; one brother-in-law, Raymond Taylor; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. We will cherish her memory and she will be dearly missed.

You can only have one Oakley . . . patient, kind and true;
No other Oakley in all the world will be the same to you.
For all her loving kindness, she asks nothing in return.
As we look upon her picture sweet memories we recall,
Of a face so full of sunshine and a smile for one and all.
Sweet Jesus, take this message to our dear beloved up above;
Tell her how we miss her and give her all our love.

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if [it were] not [so], I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, [there] ye may be also. John 14:1-3

To the Family of Mrs. Oakley Lee Taylor:

Please accept our heartfelt condolence in the home going of your mother and loved one, Sis. Oakley Lee Taylor. She will be missed greatly and we extend our prayers to you. We know that the loss of a loved one is difficult to bear and we sometimes question God, but know that He makes no mistakes. We encourage you to rejoice, for her race is over; she stood on the battlefield and fought a good fight! She kept the faith and finished the course and she is resting with our Father above!

Hold to your faith because God stands ready to ease your sorrows, to comfort you, and to give you strength for the days ahead. Sis. Taylor will never be gone, because she will remain in the hearts and memories of everyone who knew and loved her.

We, A Mother's Cry Ministries, are here if and when you need us – an ear to listen or shoulder to lean on. Do not hesitate to call.

*You are in our prayers,
Bettie J. Faison*

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
