

Octavia McFadden

October 29, 1979 - November 6, 2020

Octavia McFadden, most recently of Harrisburg, PA, by way of her birthplace Baltimore, MD, passed on November 6, 2020.

Octavia was a true Baltimorean. Born at University Hospital on the 29th of October 1979. Educated at Southwestern High School—where she proudly played Lacrosse and participated in the ROTC program. Later attending Anne Arundel Community College and Allegany Community College. Octavia's work ethic was second nature—working at the age of 14. Most recently, she served proudly as a Patient Care Representative at UPMC of Harrisburg. In 1996 her son, Travon Epps was born, followed by Jasmine in 2002 Octavia's greatest joys.

Octavia's affectionate personality and love for family and friends was contagious—as she was able to make friends wherever she went. She was compassionate, vibrant, and generous. Wherever possible, she gave of her time, none more so than to her children and to her mother who she loved unconditionally. Her keen sense of humor and smile of sunshine made her a joy to be around. In 2004, Octavia took on the greatest challenge, yet a blessing—stepping in to care for her siblings—which came to no surprise as she would give anything for her siblings.

Octavia was the kind of girl, who could encourage a bird to sing. Often encouraging those around her to love with their whole hearts and be patient. There was not a function Octavia attended, where Mary J. Blige wasn't on the playlist. Octavia was most happy when she was with her children and grandson.

Octavia is survived by her children, Travon Epps, Sr. and Jasmine Alston; her Goddaughter Latavia (Pinky); her only grandson, Travon Epps, Jr. ;her mother, Carolyn; her step-father, Keith; her wife, Martina; and siblings, Damon, Keith, Jr., Sierra, Shawnquella (Shawny), twins Tavon and Davon, Melissa, Donta, Sr. Tyrese, Hope, Sherry, Faith and Paris. Octavia is also survived by her aunts Shirley, JoAnn, and Phyllis, numerous cousins, nephews and nieces; and best friends: (Keesha, Tina, Tyesha, Danielle and of course; her Scorpio friend and sister Kia. Octavia was pre-deceased by her father, Dewayne; and her brother, Jamal.
