

Odell Junius Stokes

July 3, 1933 - January 22, 2005

Odell Junius Stokes, son of the late Silas Stokes and Lucy Johnson, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on July 3, 1933. He departed this life on January 22, 2005 after a long illness. Odell, affectionately called "Stokes," received his education at Bates High School in Annapolis, Maryland. He served this country in the United States Air Force for four years. He worked for the United States Public Health Hospital until finally retiring in 1998. Also affectionately called "Junior," he loved music, and was an avid collector of jazz. He always tried to be the first to purchase a newly released recording. He also enjoyed engaging in conversation. He was not a person who was a homebody and he would always be out and about in the neighborhood. He was a free-spirited person and once you met him he left an unforgettable impression on you. He always said, "I won't let no grass grow under my feet." He leaves to mourn: his sister, Delores Love; nephew, Floyd J. Stokes; brother-in-law, Robert Richardson; three aunts, Margaret Boswell, Mary Hendricks, and Martha Robinson; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Odell Junius Stokes

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I am sorry to learn of your loss. I send my sincere condolences to the family and friends. It may seem unfair that sickness, which can cause death, has the power to take away someone that we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. At Revelation 21: 3, 4 the Almighty God promises to wipe away sickness, death, pain, and sorrow. He also promises at John 5: 28& 29, a "resurrection". Yes, your beloved one will not be forgotten.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM