

Odell S Patterson

November 26, 1954 - May 28, 2026

ODELL STANLEY PATTERSON was born on November 26, 1954, in Littleton, North Carolina to the late Harol and Caroline Moore. He departed this life on May 28, 2026, at his home.

Odell was educated in the N.C. Public School System. He later moved to Baltimore where he worked for over thirty years at the Maryland Chicken Company. He also drove a school bus for the City of Baltimore until he retired.

On October 27, 1980, he married Linda Powell (whom he called his Shortcake).

Odell was a loving kind husband, father, son, brother, uncle, and friend.

“Dell,” as those who really knew him called him, loved to fish. He loved joking around and just having downright good fun. If you ever met him, you would not forget him. He would have you laughing in no time. He was a fun-loving and kind man. Odell would stop and help anybody in need. Sometimes, all he would ask for is a Pepsi. Boy did he love his Pepsi soda. Odell loved to sit on his front porch and feed the birds. He loved and adored his wife and their three children. We are blessed to have had a man as he in our life.

Odell is preceded in death by his parents, his baby brother Melvin Patterson, and his sister Carrie Helen (Big Girl)

. Odell leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Linda Patterson; three children, Tometrica Devereaux (Sean), Trovoy Patterson and Latarsha Patterson; mother-in-law, Marva Powell; two grandchildren, Amar Patterson (U.S. Army) and Samaya Devereaux; three sisters, Elsie Patterson (Dizzy), Lillian Jackson (Boo) and Evelyn Robinson; brother, Frank Patterson; several nieces and nephews, and a host of other relatives.
