

Odell T. Brown

January 7, 1921 - April 4, 2009

Odell Brown, daughter of the late Julius and Kati Tucker, was born on Jan. 7, 1921 in Nash County, North Carolina. She departed this life on April 4, after a brief illness. She received her education in the Nash County Public School System. At the age of nineteen she moved to Baltimore, Maryland, where she met George Battle. They united in matrimony in 1974. From this union two children were born, Julius Rudolph and Patricia Ann. In 1955 a union was formed with Alonza E. Brown who proceeded her in death. Odell was employed at Martin Marietta and then at Bendix Corporation. She later retired at Western Electric. She made numerous friends where ever she went and will sincerely be missed by everyone who knew her. She always had a true friend in Luddin, who is now departed. She leaves to cherish her memory: two children: Julius R. Battle, Patricia A. Thomas; one sister: Neppie Moody (Virginia) two brothers: Rudolph Tucker and Roosevelt Tucker (wife, Daizell Tucker) (Washington, D.C.); two grandsons: Alphonso Thomas, Jr. (wife, Kelly Thomas) and Jamahl Bastfield; ten great-grand children: Tajh, Torey, Abreyia, Tayleyia and Derrick Thomas, Taylor, Sydney Banks, Kamryn Adams, Jamia and Jamiyah Bastfield. A host of nieces, nephews and many friends.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy, for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. This is not how life is supposed to be and very soon all pain and suffering will be a thing of the past, as our Heavenly Father Jehovah by means of his son Christ Jesus, brings to nothing our 'enemy' death!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##
