

Odessa L. Asbury

June 6, 1928 - May 6, 2020

Odessa L. Asbury, 91 of Baltimore, Maryland passed away on May 6, 2020.

Odessa was born in Cheraw, South Carolina, June 6, 1928, daughter of the late Mamie and Madison Lowery. She along with her mom and dad moved to Alexandria, Virginia in 1943. She attended Parker Gray High School. There she met Louis Craig, who became her husband. To that union was born one son, the late Louis Craig who preceded her in death in 1996. Odessa moved to Baltimore where she was employed for the State of Maryland for 26 years. Odessa accepted Christ in 1963 where she became a member of Mount Pleasant Baptist Church in 1967. She later married the late Bernard E. Asbury who preceded her in death.

Odessa loved cooking and bowling, reading the Bible and spending time with family. She was a sweet, patient, giving, understanding and forgiving person.

She leaves to mourn her five grandchildren, Annett Harris, Marcia Williams, Jeffrey Craig, Orlando Craig and Dominick Craig. Eleven great grandchildren, nine great great grandchildren, four nieces; Vivian Gary, May Ann Turnage, Veronica Reaves, Sylvia Wagner and Rhonda McBride, four nephews; Riley Turnage, Timothy Turnage, James Gary and Samuel Wager and two longtime friends; Mary Bond and Delores Moore and a host of friends.
