“ I offer my heartfelt condolences to the family of Odessa. When a loved one dies, many wonder will they ever see their loved one again. No doctor or scientist no matter how caring can rid the world of sickness or death, and bring the dead back to life. But Almighty God has the power and the desire to end all pain and death, and restore life back to those who have died. Psalm 68:20 gives a very comforting thought. It says: "The true God is for us a God of saving acts, and to the Sovereign Lord belong the ways out from death. Through his son Jesus, Jehovah has given this precious one all authority to ressurect the dead. You can read this at John 5:25-29. Jesus brought many back to life while he was here on earth including his good friend Lazarus and a 12-year old girl Mark 5:38-43. May the loving-kindness of Jehovah and his son Jesus be with you at this time, and may you find much strength and comfort in all of his wonderful promises.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would like to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At this very grievous time it could seem extremely difficult to find comfort, but there is a comforter who soothes us in such a way that no human ever could. The Bible calls Jehovah God, “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all of our tribulation.” (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) And what’s more his word gives us further relief and a beautiful hope. At John chapter 5, verses 28 and 29 we read of a promise that is very soon to be realized. It speaks of an event in which all who have fallen asleep in death will live again. Yes, a resurrection from an unconscious state, to life right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11) May you find comfort as you reflect on this wonderful occasion that is to come.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##
