

Ola Mae Jackson

October 22, 1929 - August 29, 2011

OLA MAE JACKSON, daughter of the late James Allen and Mamie Mitchell passed from life unto glory on Monday, August 29, 2011.

Ola was born in Blanche, North Carolina on October 27, 1929 and was the fifth of eleven children. She was educated in the Carswell County Public School System. She received Christ as her personal Savior at an early age at the High Rock Baptist Church. She attended Sunday School faithfully and sang on the church choir as a youth.

She relocated to Baltimore, Maryland in her early twenties, where she acquired employment with the John Hopkins Hospital, and later The Baltimore Luggage Company where she stayed until the company closed in the early 70's.

She met the love of her life, Leroy I. Jackson in Baltimore, Maryland and they were wed in 1955. Leroy preceded her in death in 1990. From this union one child was born, Jeanette.

Ola had a gentle spirit and a big heart. She left the deeper South but her southern hospitality never left her. She was famous for feeding all who entered her home, especially her sweet potato pies. She rarely accepted no for an answer when it came to meals. She was not one to sugar coat her responses, but was always truthful in love to all those she encountered. She was truly a no nonsense woman who loved to walk, which she did until a year ago when her health began to challenge her.

She will be missed for her smile, honesty and the many wonderful meals she prepared with love.

She leaves to cherish her memory: one daughter, Jeannette Jackson-Murray; and her son-in-law Everett T. Murray; one grandson, Ezar E. Jackson(known as Duck to her) one great-grandson, Romero Dylan Jackson; one great-granddaughter, Zoe M. Jackson; three sisters, Jenny Mitchell and Lue Alston of Baltimore, Maryland and Ollie Mae Stewart of North Carolina, and a host of nieces and nephews.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

Geoffrey Ford - September 14, 2011 at 09:15 AM

“ I would like to extend my condolences to the family. Trusting in Jehovah and His promises will bring you comfort for your sorrow and strengthen you on this journey. Let his word lighten your way and His peace fill your heart.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

Dear Janet and family: I am so sad to learn of your dear Mother's death. I just saw Miss Ola, only the other week. My sister Rose is deeply grieved. Your mother did so much for not just you, but for my sister also. My sister has told me what a beautiful neighbor, your mother, and your entire family has been. There is nothing so precious as a mother's love. If you have any need, please do not hesitate to call on Rose or I. With sincere sympathy - Mrs. Dorothy Scott Blakely and family.
