

Olen Davis Molock

September 13, 1938 - February 29, 2024

Born September 13, 1938, OLEN DAVIS MOLOCK was one of thirteen children from the late Edith and Martin Molock. He transitioned to be with the Lord on February 29, 2024 at age 85.

Born and raised in Baltimore, Maryland, Olen graduated from Dunbar High School where he embraced the love of basketball and many other sports.

After

graduating, he went to serve his country by joining the United States Navy. Olen returned to Baltimore and worked for the Mass Transit Administration for over 40 years, from which he retired. Olen continued his education and studied Business Administration at the University of Baltimore. Olen married Vivian Lecato and from that union, two daughters were born: Dana L. Molock and Nina M. Molock. Olen later remarried Luz Tirado and from that union, three children were born: David A. Molock, Armando E. Molock, and Luzita A. Molock.

Olen led a remarkable life filled with his love for music, sports, traveling, teaching, dancing, singing, and writing. Olen had a passion for writing in which he wrote many published short stories. Olen loved to study and learn. He approached every endeavor with dedication and enthusiasm. Olen leaves behind a legacy of love and compassion that will continue to inspire all who were fortunate enough to know him. His kind, loving, and positive demeanor will forever be remembered. Though his physical presence may be gone, his spirit will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted wife, Luz Molock; his children, Dana McCready, Nina Molock, David Molock, and Luzita Molock; grandchildren, Dasia Molock, Alecia Molock, Alex Molock, and Desmond Ham Jr.; daughter-in-law, Anissa Molock; son-in-law, George McCready; sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews and extended family and friends.
