

Olive S. Nwalor

June 6, 2008 - August 15, 2017

Olive, daughter of Polycarp and Maureen Nwalor, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on June 6, 2008. She departed this life on August 15, 2017.

Olive attended Baltimore County public schools and completed the 3rd grade.

She was a very kind hearted, gentle, loving and caring girl. As young as she was, she knew what it means to give everyone around her a sense of belonging. She loved to greet people, especially those around her. She always wanted to know how they were faring. She was always willing to give a helping hand.

Olive was the youngest of her 3 siblings, but she was amazing in her act of care. She cared for her 2 brother by sometimes making food for them. She loved packing lunch for her parents when they were going to work. Any day she missed packing lunch for her dad, she would scold herself by saying "what kind of daughter am I? I forgot to pack lunch for my dad!"

She was a little, sweet and interesting girl who cared about the happiness of others. If you served her a meal she did not really like, she wouldn't reject the meal and make you feel bad, because she cared about your feeling. She would manage the meal you served her and appreciate you for providing it. She would then say "thank you for the food, though I did not like it that much."

Olive hated to see people suffer. She never liked the sight of shooting and killing on the news. She was a peaceful girl.

Olive leaves to cherish her memory: her parents, Polycarp and Maureen Nwalor; 2 brother, Alvin Nwalor and Brian Nwalor; and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, other relatives and friends.
