My heart is heavy as I write these reflections. It doesn't take much to recognize a true child of God. I felt God had blessed me to know you. Your smile was a glow of spirituality. Your heart was open and honest, and the faith you showed was definitely real. I have many fond memories of the fun times we shared through the years at table 10 in Generation One. So many meaningful moments to remember and to cherish. You were always so pleasant and thoughtful as you took time to listen. Your prayers brought back memories of my mother. Prayers that covered our needs and lifted us up. The chair beside me at table 10 will always remind me that I knew a beautiful woman . A woman that I grew very fond of, and secretly felt my mother was still alive. I will love and cherish the memories I have of you. You will always be missed and have a special place in my heart. I will feel your presence. Christa Norment GB

“ I remember Ms. Olivia from Prayer Covenant at the People’s Community Baptist Church. She was someone I admired greatly; her love, steadfastness, her care, her smile, and how much she loved Jesus and people. She made a great impact on my life and I am richer for having met her. My prayers go out to Alexis and her family as well as Ms. Olivia’s other family members. She is greatly missed!

“ *Dear Alexis,
My mom and I viewed this lovely memorial service for your mom. We loved her! We love you! We pray comfort for you and your family during this season and are sorry to have missed an opportunity to tell you both how much she (and your dad) meant to me and other kids (now in our 50's) at Union Baptist Church. Please reach out if and when you can - we are "gathering" next Saturday and everyone would love to see you.
Warmest Regards - Dolores and Alison Carter Marlow (alcmarlow@gmail.com)*

“ *I loved Olivia from the moment I met her. It was an honor and a privilege to have her as an integral part of our group here at Riderwood. Olivia was strong, brave, sassy, and full of life. I loved hearing her stories both amusing and serious. She had a presence that filled the room, and I always liked to joke with her, asking if she would adopt me, because she was so down to earth and such a caring person.
She will be sorely missed. May you rest in peace.*

I am truly saddened by the passing of Miss Olivia. My heartfelt condolences go out to Christie, Kelia and Alexis. Miss Olivia was such an amazing mother, grandmother, Christian, mother like friend to me and so many and more.

I've had the profound blessing of being connected to Miss Olivia for over 20 years. We met in Thursday night Prayer Covenant in room 105 for many years. She never missed a service. Always ready with a testimony, a prayer or a word of encouragement, Miss Olivia was present to be a blessing to the other members, the Church and so many others.

Miss Olivia welcomed me into her home, her family and her world. It was a loving, safe place to be. I was always amazed at her capacity to be so very present with her girls, her grands and her entire family but still had time to embrace me and so many other "adopted daughters." She regularly sent birthday and Christmas cards, my all time favorite card was a hand made card that she sent me on Valentine's Day that she wrote out Romans 8:38-39 "For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

She knew how to encourage me in such a meaningful way and took the time to do so. She did it all the time.

I remember her "daughter brunches" when she would have her own daughter and "adopted daughters over. She indulged us with a feast fit for queens. We would pray and LAUGH. Boy did we laugh.

As much as Miss Olivia shared kindnesses, she would also correct me. She could because she had sown so much goodness in me. She helped me see things in ways that were better than I was thinking. She also used her stick - "the enforcer" to playfully slap my hand (lightly) or threaten to. That would make us laugh.

I have so many stories to share. I could go on. The last one that I'll share would be on my most recent visit with her this March - before the virus - I was so touched that how Miss Olivia's eyes lit up with love when she saw Mildred and me. We had a delightful visit - reminiscing on good days - including "the enforcer".

If I was the beneficiary of such love, I know that Christie, Kellie and Alexis received exponentially more - as well as Kemi, Samantha, Lindsey, Jordan and Joshua. Your loss is huge. You continue to be in my prayers.

I know from experience that the Lord will comfort. Your memories will keep you for the rest of your lives. You will smile and laugh and memories.

Finally, I am encouraged that Miss Olivia is in the presence of the Lord. As the card she sent me so many years ago said "nothing will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

God bless you family. I love you

Ms. Olivia was a jewel, a true woman of God, and a good neighbor when she resided in the Fairland Green Community. The times we had together were always warm, insightful, and filled with the sharing of her wisdom about God and life. Our birthdays were two days apart. I know she now has her wings and is soaring high like an eagle. Praying for the family as you prepare for her home going celebration. She is truly missed.

Ms. Olivia was always so sweet and kind to me. She had such a calming spirit. I will remember her for presence at my milestones - the first neighbor to visit me in Tanglewood and the first person to visit me in the hospital when Danielle was born. I always felt her covering me with prayers. And I reminded her of that feeling every time we connected. Its comforting to know she's in the presence of our Lord. - Jacquie

Ms. Olivia embraced me into her family and I am forever grateful to her for that. She demonstrated a true Christian walk every step of the way. I am better for having had her in my life. Heaven is even sweeter because she is there. Love, Caryn

Thanking God for a beautiful and peaceful Christian woman as Ms. Olivia. We met so many years ago when she came to Maryland @ TPCBC and she readily embraced my daughter, Donielle (aka Marti) and myself as part of her family. I recall her many stories of being a civil rights activist in Connecticut and raising her daughters. Thank you so much for sharing your Mom with us and others. Keep her memory close in your heart as she rest in Peace. Love, Tawana

Ms. Olivia was like a Spiritual Mother to me we shared each others knowledge, love & Grace with each other especially during Bible study each Sunday. One time Ms. Olivia invited me & my family over for a nice dinner and we just sat and talked about everything under the sun. We spent so much time at the dinner time just flew by & before we knew anything it was very late at night; we couldn't believe that the time was all gone and it was that late.

One other time when I moved Ms. Olivia gave me a wonderful home warming plaque that said 'Bless this house dear Lord above, with thy love. Bless the door that opens wide, to the warmth that waits inside. Touch the windows with Thy light, be its comfort in the night. Grant it peace and sweet accord; make this house Thy home, dear Lord'. This plaque is at the front door so anyone who walks into this house knows whose house it is. Peace and eternal rest to my friend & Spiritual mother. You will truly be missed.

To the family I'm soooooo sorry for your loss & my prayers are with you,
