

Olivia Annette Coleman

January 16, 1948 - October 20, 2013

On October 20, 2013, Olivia Annette Coleman could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work, to play. Tasks left behind undone must stay that way. She was born January 16, 1948 to the late Alexander Coleman and her mother Elizabeth Coleman. Olivia was educated in the Richmond Public School system and graduated from Armstrong High School in 1967, where she was very active on the cheering squad. After graduation she continued her education at J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College.

Olivia was employed by Richmond Redevelopment Housing Authority (RRHA) as an administrative assistant and secretary. After 30 years of service she retired from RRHA and pursued her interest in antiques and different objects. Her love of collecting, antiques afforded her an opportunity to open her own antique shop where she sold merchandise at different flea market sites. After Olivia retired from her antique business, she began to enjoy gardening, sewing and redecorating her home. She was known to accomplish goals that she set for herself with help from her son and God.

She was a kind and loving person that gave more of herself to her family and friends but especially to her son whom she loved dearly. Olivia is survived by her loving mother, Elizabeth Coleman; loving and devoted son Frankie Deltoro Coleman; two brothers, Marcellus and Ricardo "Rickie" Coleman; one sister, Gwendolyn Smith and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends, among them devoted friend, Rebecca "Becky" Robinson

“ To the family of Olivia Annette Coleman:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ To the Coleman Family,

Olivia and I worked together in the RRHA Rehab Office for over 25 years and shared much. She was one of those people you meet on this journey who time does not let you forget. One memory in particular always come back this time of year. Olivia would never take planned vacations, only at the end of the year when she was forced to "use it or lose it". She actually put in for a vacation in October one year to go to Roanoke. Everyone said, "What! We know it's going to snow!" It did - in October! Also, how she could manage her money! I envied her. I could fill up this space, but instead I will say that I'm glad she passed my way.

I was sorry to have missed her homegoing service, but word came too late. So I'll bid her Godspeed on her way home.

Family, be blessed, and hold to those "precious memories".

“ To Frankie and the Rest of the Coleman Family, "O" (as we in the Rehab Office of RRHA affectionately called her) will be dearly missed, I did have the pleasure of seeing her in the Dollar Tree not long ago. We had time to share and go down memory lane it was so nice to talk with and see her. I will keep memories like these in my heart as I know you also will treasure your memories. My prayer is that each of you know the love of Christ that passes knowledge and His peace during this time. He is a God that sticks closer than a brother and He is here (even this day) for each of you. Let Him comfort you during this time as only He can. Denise Boisseau

“ I am sorry for your loss and I extend my condolences to your family. The Bible provides a comforting message for families that are grieving. Acts 24:15 says that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. It's comforting to know that we can have the opportunity to be with our loved ones again, here on the earth, under peaceful and righteous conditions. (Psalms 37:9,11,29) Until that time, read God's word the Bible for guidance, strength and hope.

To family and friends of Olivia Annette Coleman:

I am very sorry to hear of your loss, please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort in family and friends at this difficult time. The Bible also offers words of comfort and speaks of a time when death, pain and suffering will be no more at Revelation 21:4. Again, I am truly sorry for your loss, and I pray this message brings you much comfort.
