

Ollie V. Little

August 2, 1925 - January 22, 2007

Ollie Virginia Little, daughter of late Ceasor and Lucy Purvis, was born on August 2, 1922 in Williamston, North Carolina. She departed this life on January 22, 2007 after a lengthy illness. She received her education at Hays High School in North Carolina. Ollie worked at Muhly's Bakery and the Have-It-Done-Right Laundry for many years. She married the late Irvin Little, and from this union six children were born; two loving sons and four loving daughters. Ollie always had a beautiful smile, a good sense of humor, and a song that would make you smile. This I know everyone will miss. Ollie leaves to cherish her memory: her loving daughters, Faye, Laretta, Lemetris, Demetris and Charnell; her two sons, Irvin who is deceased and Richard; son-in-law, Anthony Sr.; one sister, Marjorie, a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren other relatives and friends

“ I am very sorry to learn of the loss of Ollie to death. This must have been a difficult time for your family. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. That was true when Moses wrote it, but that was not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says, It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written. But it was not the case before God passed judgment on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ Dear family. Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. Death is truly devastating when we lose someone we love in death. We all long for an end to this pain and sorrow of this life. One day God promise, that he will create all things new, and sickness and death will not be a part of that new arrangement. Rev.21:3-5. Also those who have already died have the hope of living again. God's word says at Daniel 12:2, "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." May the thought of being reunited with Ollie again bring joy to your heart, and may our loving heavenly father Jehovah God give you much comfort to help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends my deepest condolences. My you cherish her memory. The Bible has words of comfort at 1 Corinthians 15:26 states, "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. There is much hope for our dead loved ones. Almighty God reveals that "There is going to be a resurrection."-Acts 24:15 This will take place in a new world in which there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain.(See Isaiah 65:17, Luke 23:43)It is my hope that you will receive much comfort and strength as you think about these loving promises found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
