

Omar K. Corbin

November 27, 1966 - August 30, 2012

Omar Khayan Corbin also known by many as “Sarg” was born in Baltimore, Maryland on November 27, 1966 to Anne Ware and the late Ernest Eugene Corbin.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Forest Park High School. He graduated from Allstate Career Institute in 2008 and recently attended Baltimore City Community College in Pursuant of his Associate Degree in Human Services with a concentration in Substance Abuse Counseling. Currently, he was employed by the City of Baltimore as a truck driver.

Omar really enjoyed life to the fullest, he loved being the jokester and making others laugh. “GQ had nothing on him” because he was always in style and loved to dress. Spending time with his family was his first passion and hanging out with friends as well. Omar was a superstar on the basketball court and a champion in the boxing ring; UFC (Ultimate Fighting Championship) was his thing in which he recently began training.

His love will always be remembered by his survivors: his children, Omar II, Khayan, Nakita, Sybria, Dashon and Kayron; grandchildren, Omar III and Amare’; siblings Joseph Jones, Frances Morgan, Tammie Carter, Johnny Jacobs, Ernestine Corbin, Sudia Corbin and Lamont Bell; nieces and nephews, Karon, Barrcell, Sharron, Chanell, Destiny, James, Nnate', Chris and Brittlely; and a host of other relatives and friends who loved and adored him.

“ I am so sorry for your lost. Losing a loved one is never easy. How comforting it is to know that Jehovah God promises to do away with all of the suffering we face today. In Revelation 21:4, it says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." I encourage you and your family to read this scripture in your own copy of the bible and I hope this helps in your time of need.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
