

Omega D. McCullough

December 28, 1988 - October 25, 2017

OMEGA DANIEL MCCULLOUGH, was born to Nathaniel and Helen McCullough on December 28, 1988. He was the youngest son from this union. He ascended to a new life on October 2017 at the age of 28. He is preceded in death by his brother Titus McCullough.

Omega was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He graduated from Northwestern High School in 2008. Math was his favorite subject. Omega gave his life to Jesus at a young age. He was a member at New Fellowship Christian Center. His favorite hymn was "I made a vow to the Lord".

Omega was faithfully employed for eight years as an acting Lieutenant for the Maryland Jockey Club at Pimlico Race Track. His hobbies included drawing pictures, boxing, dancing and listening to music, in which his favorite was "Young Moose".

Omega was strong and wouldn't back down. He was known to have your back. Omega was leader among his friends. Omega loved everyone he came in contact with. When you say, "I love you to him", he would say, "ALL READY". His proudest moment was the day his son Xavier Daniel was born. He enjoyed teaching him how to box, watching him learn, and celebrating his special moments.

Omega loved spending time with his family. When family came together, all of his brothers would joke on each other and laugh. Although he was the youngest of twelve children, Omega had a special bond with his little sister Necee. Omega loved his mother "Helen" dearly. She named him Omega from the Bible because he was the last one.
