

Oppielee Selene Williams

October 25, 1965 - May 23, 2017

Oppielee S. Williams, 51, joined her son, Michael H. Washington, in heaven on the morning of May 23, 2017, after a valiant fight against cancer.

She was born in Richmond, VAQ to the late Roane L. Harris and Eva R. Washington, and was raised in King William County, VA. Oppielee was educated in the King William County School System where she developed the skills to become an extremely social and popular aspiring leader.

She accepted the Lord as her personal Savior at an early age in King William County, VA. Later, she joined Rising Liberty Church, Richmond, VA. She was a faithful member until her death and showed the love of Christ. She was employed by Applebee's Restaurant where she was admired by her co-workers and her customers.

She leaves to celebrate her life and many warm memories, her devoted husband, James T. Williams; her seven children; Jaime Mukuriah (Oscar), Selena Washington (Michael), and Varyn Parham-Coleman (Jerrell), Jada, Jordyn, Josette, and Jacara; her stepdaughters, Karina Williams and Quintana Hines; brothers, Raymond and Tyrone Harris (Pamela); sisters, Chloe and Trinette Harris; two granddaughters, Zuri and Michaela, and several devoted nieces, nephews, and an abundance of family and friends.

Throughout her life, Oppielee was known for her outgoing personality, infectious dimpled smile, straight forward attitude and the immense amount of love she was able to harbor in her heart for all her family and friends. Oppielee, known as a great mother, touched many lives with memories of love, laughs, and the best mac and cheese ever made.

Oppielee will always be remembered for her positive attitude, compassion, generosity and joie de vivre (exuberant enjoyment of life). Her memory will live on forever in our hearts.
