

Ora Marie Brown

April 7, 1940 - August 24, 2019

ORA MARIE BROWN was born April 7, 1940 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Rev. Burkett Haywood and Cornetta Copeland. She departed this life Saturday, August 24th at 8:30 p.m. at Sinai Hospital.

She was preceded in death by her siblings: Jazreal Haywood, Jessie Haywood, Lillie Cunningham, Dorothy Barnes, Catherine Cotton and Lee Dora Johnson.

Marie attended Jeffery School in Red Oak North, Carolina in her early years. She moved to Baltimore, Maryland and married James Edward Hardy Senior who preceded her in death in January 1970. From this union three children were born. Marie furthered her education in child care development to pursue a 40 - year career in her passion of childcare. At an early age she gave her life to the Lord and became an active member of the Church of God with Pastor Helen Russell at Baltimore Street and Ellicott City. She served under the leadership of Pastor Hawkins at Ellicott City and Liberty Road Church of God for a short period of time. She made it known to everyone how much she loved the Lord. Her passion for singing with her sisters inspired her and gave her great joy. They were known as the "Haywood Sisters" singing their favorite spiritual hymns at church and other events. She enjoyed traveling with her sisters on various spiritual retreats. During her travels she was spiritually connected to Henry Lee Davis Brown who shared her love for the Lord. They were married in 2009. Her unconditional love was felt by everyone and was called Aunt Do by all her nieces and nephews.

She leaves to cherish her sweet memory: her husband of 10 years, Henry Brown; one son, James Edward Hardy Jr.; her daughter-in-law, Shandra Hardy; two daughters, Katheren Hardy and Ora Hardy; two sister-in-laws, Betty Bagby and Liz Brown; one brother-in-law, Jerry Brown. She also leaves five grandchildren and one great-grandchild, Delonte Hardy, Ashanti Hardy, James Edward Hardy (Tre), Abiba Hardy, Cuttino Porter, Ezra Hardy; and a host of other family and friends
