

Ora Lee Point

November 13, 1936 - March 8, 2020

ORA LEE POINT, daughter of the late Scott Lewis and Bessie Davis Charles, was born on November 13, 1936 in Lee County, South Carolina. God suddenly, but lovingly called her from labor to reward on Sunday, March 8, 2020.

Ora's early upbringing and schooling was in Lee County, South Carolina. She met and married Cliburn Lane, Sr., who preceded her in death; and from that union came Cliburn Lane, Jr., Sylvia Lane Sutton, Charlene Lane, Warren Davis, Ricky Lane, Thomas Lane and Victoria Lane. She later met and married Frank Washington Point and mothered Tony Point and Eric Point.

Ora joined the True Way Church of God in 1984 where she received her spiritual guidance, teaching and training under the leadership of Bishop Matthew C. Newman until God called her home. She was baptized in the name of Jesus for the remission of her sins and she received the precious gift of the Holy Ghost. She was an anointed soul winner for Jesus Christ and True Way has been tremendously blessed due to the tender love and care that she displayed to all who she encountered. Ora was a faithful and devoted member of the True Way Church of God. She served willingly and actively on several auxiliaries such as Community Outreach, Daughters In Christ and the Prayer Conference Line. She was a "charismatic worshipper" who didn't mind "getting her praise on". She was known to be a diligent "prayer warrior" who labored in prayer daily for her family, church and friends.

Ora had an infectious smile was rarely missing from her face. She was truly a joy to know and to love. Additionally, she enjoyed cooking, fishing and spending time with her family and church.

She leaves to cherish her memory: Cliburn (Barbara), Sylvia (Jesse), Charlene (James), Warren (Valarie); fifteen grandchildren, twenty-four great-grandchildren, nine great-great-grandchildren; close friends, Shirley, Dory, Michelle, Lillian; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
