

Oris Johnson

July 29, 1956 - September 3, 2008

Oris Johnson Jr. (OJ), son of the late Oris and Yvonne Johnson, was born on July 29, 1956 in New Orleans, Louisiana. He departed this life on September 3, 2008. He raised his education in New Orleans, including college. He joined his Boskey's Enterprises working as manager. That involved traveling which "OJ" got to visit and stay in many of the fifty states, including Maryland. While in Baltimore he happened upon the Living Classrooms Foundation in 2003, and joined their employment. "OJ" was an eager learner and hard worker, a dedicated and loyal person, which caused him to rise from member to instructor, then to supervisor in four years. He received several awards from the Living Classrooms Foundation for his job devotion and loyalty. He loved all those at Living Classrooms. "OJ" loved his family and often said he was the richest man in the world. He leaves to mourn; his wife, Theresa, whom he lovingly called "Dee;" two sons, Mario and Angelo, two daughters, Kissie and Kirby; four grandsons, Mario Jr., Lamarrio, Kayden, Sylvester, three granddaughters, Sylvana, Siaja, Felicia; two great-grandchildren; a brother, Len (Shay); sister-in-law, Nina, who he loved and called his sister; brother-in-law, Michael (Janice); nephews, one to whom he was closest "Stormie", father-in-law, Walker, and daughter-in-law, Annie. "OJ" had many friends. Jerome "Bo" Bullock, Prentis Johnson, Josh Brown, Fred Hawkins, Henry Knight and Howard Wicker, were his closest.

“ It's so hard to deal with the death of someone we truly love. You have my deepest sympathy. Know that our loving heavenly father knows your pain, and he will always be there for you to comfort you. Pour out your hearts to him in prayer, let him know how much it hurts, and then leave your burden in his loving care. Whenever you are feeling down, and the road gets too hard to bear; remember this wonderful scripture found at Rev 21:4, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." One day your loved one will open his eyes again, and he will never have to die ever again. May the holy spirit be upon you during your tribulation.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ May I send my condolences to you all in your recent circle of life being broken. Lossing a dear loved one hurt and our heavenly father cares about you all as 1 Peter 5 :7 say. We can look forward to a time in the future when dying will be a thing of the past, Rev.21:3-5, Why, because our creator is making all things new.I am looking forward and I know you all are too, as God's will will be done on earth as it is in heaven, Matt. 6:9-11. I hope these few thoughts will be uplifting to read. May all the many cherished memories of Oris keeping supporting you all on life journey ahead.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ Dimples, you know I wanted to be there for you. I know that you will truly miss OJ. Please take comfort in knowing that he is no longer suffering. He feels no more pain. OJ was the coolest that ever came into our family. Thank God for the time that the two of you shared. I love you Inez##imported-begin##Inez##imported-end##
