“ I send my warm condolences to the family of Mr Osborne. Many months have gone by since he passed away, yet we never forget out loved ones. The pain is always there in the deep recesses of our heart, but time makes it a little easier to bear. One day we won't have to bury our loved ones anymore, because God is bringing about a new and wonderful change to this earth. During that time sickness and death will be done away with for all time, because Isaiah 25,8 promises that Jehovah will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces." As for the dead, Daniel 12,2 tells us that there will be many of those asleep in the ground of the dust who will wake up. So death is not final. If we exercise faith in the ransom sacrifice of the Christ, and keep Jehovah's laws and principles; then we will be able to see our loved ones again. This is God's wonderful promise to us from the God who cannot lie. Heb 6,18. He is the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulations. 2nd Cor 1:3,4, May he give you the comfort and strength that you need to carry on, and may you grow in knowledge of the scriptures, which leads to everlasting life. John 17,3 says, "This means everlasting life; their taking in knowledge of you, the only true God, and of the one whom you sent forth, Jesus Christ. One day all pain will be gone, and we will see our loved ones come to life again.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
