January 30, 1930 - December 1, 2008

Osborne Robinson, Sr., son of the late Calvin Robinson and Myrtle Boykin was born January 30, 1930 in Baltimore, Maryland. God called him home of December 1, 2008. Osborne was raised in a Christian home as a child. As he got older, he found the love of Christ at Cherry Hill Baptist Church. He attended Baltimore City Public Schools. He had three siblings, Gladys, Julius, and Joseph who all preceded him in death. During his teenage years, he met and married Ellen B. Williams. From this union three children were born, Osborne Jr., and Myrtle Mae (Francina, the youngest daughter, preceded him in death). As an adult, Osborne worked for the Department of Housing for 36 years and retired as a Supervisor in the Maintenance Division. He was well known from Baltimore City through Cherry Hill. Osborne was so full of life. He loved to party and tell jokes. He could make anybody laugh. He played Bingo, card games, and he loved to dance. But, most of all, he loved the Lord. He found a new way to dance and that was with the Lord. To cherish Osborn's memories are his wife, Ellen Robinson; five children, Osborne, Jr., Myrtle Mae, Daniel, Anthony, and Antoine; nine step-children, Joseph, Rachel, Karen, Cassandra, Artis, Arthur, Clarice, Denise, and Vanessa; one sister-in-law, Georgette Boykins; one daughter-in-law, Delores Robinson; two sons-in-law; Tony Clark and George Norris; 20 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren, 8 great-great grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends. His oldest daughter, Myrtle Mae Robinson, loved his unconditionally and stayed with her father until the end of his journey, may it be well with her soul.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly informs us: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
