

Ossie Samuel Crawford

January 22, 1945 - October 2, 2006

OSSIE SAMUEL CRAWFORD, JR., was the second of six children born to the late Ossie Buck and Catherine Henderson Crawford. He was born January 22, 1945 in Baltimore, Maryland and departed this for a glorious transition on Monday, October 2, 2006 after a short illness. Ossie received his formal education from the Baltimore City Public School System. Upon completion of his education, he became a loyal and full time employee of the Baltimore City Public School for over 35 years. He was part of the support staff at Fallstaff Elementary School, Northwestern High School, Roland Park Elementary School and most recently Loyola College of Maryland. A devoted son to his mother, Ossie never married and had no children. Ossie made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He leaves to mourn: his mother, Catherine Crawford; brother, Charles Vernon; three sisters, Barbara Aulu, Beverly Cruz and Veronica Lynch; nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives from the Young, Thomas, Rahman, Crawford and Small families.

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. However, there is a source of comfort for us. God's Word, the Bible assures us that "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort...comforts us in all our tribulation." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. It also offers us the solution to our source of distress at Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful provision further.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I had the honor to know Mr. Crawford for just a few years at Loyola College. He was a nice man. I will miss his sayings: 'God's willing' and "It's all in a noshing'. May the God of all Peace be with the family during your time of trail and testing.##imported-begin##Floyd Brice##imported-end##
