

Otis E. Brown

August 8, 1938 - December 20, 2002

OTIS EDWARD BROWN was born on August 8, 1938 in Queens Annes County, Maryland. "Billy," as he was affectionately known, completed his life on earth on Friday, December 20, 2002. He grew up and attended public schools in Queens Annes County. He shared the Lord's praise at John Wesley Methodist Church in Carmichael, Maryland. After moving to Baltimore, he met the former Sheila Thompson and they were united in holy matrimony in 1961. From this union their son Eric Edward was born. For many years Otis worked in the agriculture industry for the Calhan's of the Eastern Shore. He worked at the Maryland School for the Blind for more than twenty years. Later, he was employed by the Baltimore City Public School System for eighteen years until his retirement in 1997. He is survived by his loving wife, Sheila; sisters, Dorothy Hammond and Margaret Brown; and a bounty of other relatives and friends. Otis is also survived by his loving spirit and memory of being ever so helpful, caring and vigilant over those in his life.
