

Otis Washington

June 1, 1924 - March 7, 2009

On Saturday, March 7, 2009, OTIS WASHINGTON expired at Augsburg Lutheran Home and Village. He was born on June 1, 1924 to the late Lauren and Julia Washington. Otis was educated in the public schools of Timmonsville, South Carolina and honorably served in the United States military. He was converted at an early age and became a God-fearing man. As a farmer, he met and married his first wife, Thursana and from this union four children were born. He later relocated to Baltimore, Maryland where he joined in union with Katherine Edwards and together they reared eleven children. He was employed by W.F. Wilson and Sons Construction Company and retired after thirty years of service. Otis was a very kind and generous man who was affectionately called "Pop" by all who knew him. He had a genuine love for his family, friends and neighbors. His southern upbringing followed him throughout his life; he waved from his front porch and greeted all passers-by, regardless of who they were. As a resident at Augsburg, he made many friends and was never known to complain about anything. "Pop" will truly be missed by all. He leaves to mourn their loss: his sister, Calpurnia Clavon Florence, South Carolina; his children, Bruce, Jacqueline, Eddie, Joe, Linda, Phyllis, Stanley and Michael (Ray, Lennie and Julia preceded him in death); two daughters-in-law, Vicky and Yvonne; son-in-law, Vincent; twenty-five grandchildren, a host of great-grandchildren, numerous other relatives and friends.

“ I send my heartfelt condolences to the family at this particular time of sorrow. Put all of your trust in God and his wonderful promises, because the fulfillment of bible prophecy indicates that God's time of deliverance is close at hand. Very soon all violence, all wars, all sickness, and all other tragedies will be gone from this earth. The most blessed thing that will occur is an end to death, and a resurrection for the dead. Then true peace will reign. This will not come about by man's kingdoms, but by God's kingdom, which will soon take over the earth. Daniel 2:44. One day no more sorrow, no more pain. Please read the following scriptures for comfort, Isiah 25:8, Psalm 37:10,11, John 5:28,29, 2nd Peter 3:13. May the loving kindness of Jehovah and his son Jesus Christ surround your family at this time.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Pop was many things to many people. He had a genuine love for all mankind. He was more than an uncle to me, but a father, friend and relative that I will miss more than words can say. I count it an awesome privilege and an honor to have known him. I know he is in a better place; in that I rejoice and thank God for the time He loaned him to us. Thank God for the angel He left among us for a little while.##imported-begin##Brenda Edwards##imported-end##
