

Ottis Williams

February 7, 1919 - September 28, 2004

Mr. Ottis Williams, son of Mr. Thomas and Lillimay Williams, was born February 7, 1919 in Greenville, South Carolina. He took his first step on his new journey on September 28, 2004 after living a long, exciting, adventurous life. He received the education he had from the institute of hard and harder learning. He moved from South Carolina to Maryland and got a job working for Western Maryland Railroad, where he worked for over 39 years until he retired. He married Ms. Alice Wee Green on May 12, 1938, and was married to her until the day she went on her journey in 1993. Out of this union came eight children, six of which are still with us today. Willie Williams, Laura Williams, Julia Matthews, Anthony Williams, Faouly Umoja and Thomas Williams. Ottis had a multitude of friends and associates he made in the 85 years he walked upon this earth and many will surely miss him. He leaves behind following his celebration of ascension to the place we all want to be: two brothers, George and Willie Williams; four sons, Willie Williams, Anthony Williams, Faouly A. Umoja, and Thomas Williams; two daughters, Laura Williams and Julia Matthews; many grandchildren, great-grandchildren, daughters-in-law, a host of relatives, friends, and a very loving and caring companion Mr. Frances Wilson. Mr. Ottis Williams is gone from this life as we know it and we may never meet him again. But to those who knew and loved him, he will never be forgotten.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, I wanted to take this time to express my condolences on the loss of your loved one. I wanted to let you know that the Bible offers hope and comfort at times like this. The scriptures tells us that God is a God of Comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4 & Isaiah 66:13). They also tell us that he sees our plight is near to those broken at heart and those crushed in spirit he saves, Psalm 34:18. There is also hope of seeing our dead loved ones again in a different world free from all the stresses of this world. A world where there are no crimes, sickness, death, poverty, etc. These promises can be found at scriptures such as Psalm, 37:10, 11; Revelation 21:3, 4; John 5:28, 29; Isaiah 26:19; Hosea 13:14. There are plenty of other scriptures but time will not permit me to give them all to you. The next time Jehovah’s Witnesses knock on your door please if you ask them they will be more than happy to give you more comfort from the scriptures. Please take the time to read the scriptures mentioned and draw comfort from them whenever you feel the need.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy. We all need comfort when someone we love dies. May you find comfort from ... the Father of tender mercies and the God of Comfort who comfort us in all our tribulations 2 Cor.1:3,4. May you continue to find comfort and support from the holy scriptures, family, and friends.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##
