

Owen P. Link

November 20, 1923 - April 19, 2002

On November 20, 1923 in High Shoals, North Carolina, Owen P. Link was born to the parents of Alfred J. Link and Callie Crawford Link, the youngest of thirteen children. He departed this life on Friday, April 19, 2002, after a brief illness. At an early age Link was baptized and received his early Christian training. Upon the death of his mother at age 13, he moved to Richmond, Va. to live with his sister, Eunice Jones, who helped raise him. He received his education at Armstrong High School in Richmond VA. An earlier marriage ended in divorce while still quite young he embarked on a trip to Baltimore, MD to visit relatives and made it his home. He proudly served his country during World War II, for the U.S. Army throughout his life span; he had various occupations, such as truck driver janitorial services and a presser for Courtney Cleaners for over 20 years. He furthered his education and became a boiler engineer. His last job was with The Chesapeake and Paperboard Co., retiring in 1993. He was always hospitable to those who visited his home. He enjoyed family gatherings. The Christmas holidays were very special to him. Link loved his family and would go to great lengths to help them when in need. He will surely be missed. To his wife he was a gift of love and loyalty; to his children he was a loving and devoted father. Left to praise Link's life and to hold precious memories of him are: his devoted wife, Jeanie (Catlett) Link; his cherished children, Anna L. Robbins, Constance Carter, Vernell Link, Eugene A. Link, Ivan A. Link; fourteen grandchildren; fifteen great grandchildren, one great great-grandchild, two daughters-in-law, four sisters-in-law, five brothers-in-law, two uncles, one aunt, and many loving nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends Specials thanks to his brother-in-law and our Uncle John Catlett for his love and support during our loved one's illness. May God bless you for your acts of kindness. Two sons proceeded in death, Owen, Jr. and Clarence.
