

Ozelia Christine Price

January 25, 1929 - March 19, 2009

Ozelia C. Price, affectionately known as “Zee”, the daughter of the late Rev. Louis A.H. and the late Bessie B. Moore, was born January 25, 1929. God called Ozelia home on March 19, 2009. Ozelia received her education at Brooks High School in Calvert County, Maryland. Upon completion of high school she worked as a nurse’s assistant. In 1949 she married James C. Price Jr. and out of this union they raised seven children. Ozelia’s most important job was as the caregiver for her children. She sacrificed every thing for the children in her family and neighborhood. She fostered many children over the course of her life. She volunteered for the Baltimore Public School System and as a foster grandparent for the department of Juvenile Justice. She was an active member of Central Summerfield United Methodist Church, which later became Wildwood Parkway United Methodist Church, from 1968 till her illness. Ozelia is survived by three daughters; Zelda Harvey, Rozelia Bradby, and Tracy Price; two sons, Kenneth Price and Earl Price; one son-in-law, Rodney Bradby; one daughter-in-law, Maxine Price; one brother-in-law, John Graham; two sister-in-laws, Mary Smith and Louise McCullough; nineteen grandchildren; ten great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; one sister, Rozelia Graham; one brother, Abraham Moore; and a host of nephews, nieces, friends, and neighbors. Ozelia was preceded in death by her loving husband, James Price Jr.; two sons, Robert Price and James Price III; one sister, Mary Elizabeth Boyd; one brother, Louis Moore; one sister-in-law, Betty Moore; and one brother-in-law Calvin Price.

“ Hello ! Price's ! May I express my condolence to you all in your recent circle of life being broken. It is great and wonderful to live for 80 years as the bible say at Ps.90:10, " Some person will live to be 70 years and others 80 years because of speical mightiness". We can look forward to the time when no one will ever die again, Rev.21:3-5, Why, because our heavenly father is making all thing New, May all the gift of memories help supporting you all on the journey of life ahead.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ I send my sincere and heartfelt condolences for the loss of Ozelia. Losing a loved one in death is truly heartbreaking for the family, and no matter how many people we lose, we never get used to it. That's because God did not create us to die, but to live, and one day his purpose will be fulfilled when he ends death forever. 1st Cor 15:26 makes this promise: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Will the dead live again? Yes they will, because the book of Daniel says, "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up. Daniel 12:2, and Acts 24:15 promises that they will be a resurrection of the dead. Whenever you are feeling down and sad about your loved one, reflect on these wonderful promises found in the bible, because God never fails to fulfill his word. Isaiah 55:11. One day Ozelia will come to life again. May you find comfort in these promises.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
