“ I didn't know Ozenn personally, but I wish to offer my sincere condolences to the family. I know how hard it is to lose a loved one, and I hope you find much comfort and peace to help you to cope. One day the tragedy of death will be no more, because this is God's wonderful promise found in the Bible. At 1st Cor 15:26 he promises: As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing. May our loving heavenly father continue to strengthen you in the days ahead.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

March Funeral Homes - February 17, 2012 at 03:33 PM

I also wish to extend my deepest sympathy in the death of your loved one. Please find comfort in this passage from God's Word : “[God] will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.” Revelation 21:4. In that new world, even dead ones will be brought back to life to share in those blessings: “There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.” (Acts 24:15)
