

Palmer A. Brinkley

September 25, 1967 - November 24, 2002

Palmer Artemus Brinkley, affectionately known as “Moe” to family and friends, was born September 25, 1967. Moe was afflicted with a chronic asthmatic condition since birth. On the evening of November 24, 2002, the Creator of us all ended Moe’s life of suffering and guided his spirit home to rest. Moe was quite productive in his short lived life and was a graduate of Southern High School. At the time of Moe’s death, he was employed with the Overlea Catering Company in Overlea, Maryland. Moe’s spiritual flight began as a child where he was an active member of St. Michael’s Catholic Church. He would go on there to be baptized, to make his First Holy Communion and to be Confirmed. It was only in recent years that Moe began to identify with the Moslem faith. He became known to many as Palmer X as a result of this transformation. Moe was the baby of his family. Moe’s sense of wit, charisma and intelligence extended out into the East Baltimore community qualifying Moe to be known as “Everyone’s Baby.” Moe was also a very dedicated brother and uncle. Moe leaves to mourn a loving mother, Mrs. Irma Cook; three sisters, Mrs. Shirley Diane Dean, Mrs. Sheila Cook-Haley and Mrs. Ethel Cook (Birdie); three brothers, Mr. Maurice Hawkins (Reecie), Mr. Norman Cook (Augg) and Mr. Garland Brinkley (Beep). Also left to mourn are extended family and friends.
