

Pam Mason

January 31, 1959 - June 5, 2018

I know it seems as if we are a million miles apart,
But I am right here with you I live deep within your heart.

In Loving Memory
Pam Coleman Mason

Pam Coleman Mason transitioned suddenly into eternal rest on Tuesday, June 5, 2018 at Henrico Doctors Hospital, to come home and rest in the Lord. She was lifted and redeemed by the Power of the Holy Spirit. Much suffering and patience brings Endurance. She was born on January 31, 1959 to the late Alfred Coleman, Sr. and Geneva Coleman. She is preceded in death by her brother, Alfred Coleman Jr. and sister, Clarissa Coleman.

She received her formal education at Patrick Henry High School where she met her former husband Clyde A. Mason. Pam accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Shiloh Baptist Church in Ashland, Virginia.

Pam was a dedicated employee with Chartwells at Randolph Mason College for over 40 years until she became ill.

She had an open door policy and offered a home that was a safe haven for all. Pam enjoyed being in the kitchen; she was an amazing cook. She loved to travel once she got over her fear of flying and the ocean. There was no stopping her after that. She was an avid reader and you could always find her with a good book. No matter what Pam was going through she always had a smile on her face that would light up any room and a laugh like no other. She had a nurturing soul who lived for her children and granddaughter. Pam will be missed greatly.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory; daughter, Nicole "Nikki" Mason; son, LaVon "von" Mason; granddaughter, Alexandir "Alex" Moore; sister, Claudette Lewis; two brother, Nathaniel "Marty" Coleman and Zackary Coleman; aunts, Mozelle Miller, Vivian Carter and Patricia Morton; uncles, Arthur, Reggie and Leon Morton; nephew, Antoine Coleman; niece, Cieara Kanard; great-nephews, Syncere Johnson and Ayden Kanard; goddaughter, Camille "Meme" Cox and a host of family and friends including devoted friends, Harold Cotman, Lois Cotman, Connie Holden and Bridgette King.
