

Pamela Dredde

January 31, 1962 - June 20, 2012

PAMELA D. DREDDEN, daughter of the late Helen B. Dredde and William H. Dredde lost her battle with cancer on June 20, 2012. God reached down and claimed his own and told battle is not yours it's mine.

She received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Harbel Pratt, she went on to Morgan State University where she received her nursing degree. Pamela was blessed to find love and married the late Edward Evans in 1981. Pamela was employed with The Vila Nursing Home where she spent her career caring for those who could no longer care for themselves. She gave 18 years of service before retiring due to medical reasons.

Pamela was a very kind and generous person with a heart of gold. She would give her last if she had it to give. When she wasn't working she enjoyed spending time with her family and friends. Like her mother before her Pamela kept the family together and made sure everyone was alright.

She leaves to mourn: her son Antwan Davis; brother, William H. Dredde Jr.; sister, Toressa R. Dredde; daughter-in-law Shawana L. Davis; three grandchildren, Aja davis, Anthony Davis and Ashley Davis; one step daughter, Keondra Evans; one nephew, William H. Dredde III; one niece, Ilesha Lemon and a host of other family and close friends. She was preceded in death by her loving mother and father, brother, husband and grandparents.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
